

CONCORDIA UNIVERSITY INAUGURATES
THE ERIC O'CONNOR LECTURE SERIES

VIOLENCE AND REDEMPTION

March 1st, 2nd, & 3rd, 1993

March 1st: CHARLES TAYLOR, PhD - Professor of Philosophy, McGill. Internationally renowned philosopher and political scientist. Author of the acclaimed "Sources of The Self".

HUMAN NATURE AND VIOLENCE

7:30 pm - Loyola Chapel

March 2nd: KENNETH R. MELCHIN, PhD - Professor of Theology, St. Paul University, Ottawa. Author of "History of Ethics and Emergent Probability". Works extensively in the area of Conflict Resolution.

CHRISTIANITY AND VIOLENCE

7:30 pm - St. James The Apostle

March 3rd: MARY JO LEDDY, PhD - Professor, Regis College, University of Toronto. Peace worker, newspaper editor, broadcaster, refugee worker. Coauthor of "In The Eye of The Catholic Storm".

RESOURCES FOR A PEACEFUL FUTURE

7:30 pm - Loyola Chapel

Loyola Chapel, Concordia University,
7141 Sherbrooke West (Bus #162 from Ville Marie, #105 from Vendome).

St. James The Apostle Anglican Church,
1439 St. Catherine St. W. (corner of Bishop) Metro: Guy/Concordia.
Phone: 849-7577

Suggested offering: All 3 lectures - $5.00
Individual lectures - $2.00

For more information, phone: 848-3588, 848-7799, or 848-2475

Sponsored by:

Dept. of Theological Studies
Loyola Peace Institute, Campus Ministry,
Loyola Jesuit Community

English Speaking Catholic Council
St. James The Apostle Anglican Church

Concordia
UNIVERSITY